

December Newsletter

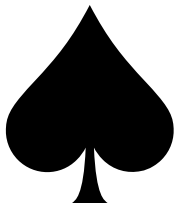

Another year of bridge playing is coming to a close. It has been a busy year, full of home games, and trips away. The bridge club goes from strength to strength, and thanks goes to all the members who pitch in and do whatever tasks are assigned to them.

May all your finesses work out, and your hands be filled with trumps this Christmas.

The annual Christmas party was a great success, thanks to Lynn, who organised the caterers, and Sue, who helped her to set up the tables.

The food was great, and the wine flowed freely. After lunch, bridge was played as usual, with some very good results, despite the alcohol.
