We have all settled in well to our new premises, and as Spring and summer approaches, the club hopes to have the new air-conditioning and blinds installed. The Committee members have worked very hard to make this a reality, and we are all very thankful.

The Ingham Congress was a great success, with three pairs from Malanda competing. They all achieved great success, even with the raffles.

Playing Rules

In all bridge games, it is essential to be considerate to other players. As our new venue tends to exacerbate loud noise, it is important to keep noise to a minimum while other players are still playing.
